1. General Provisions

To be held at the Region III Championship Show. Rules to be reviewed annually by the futurity committee. All rules not covered by this document will be governed by the current rules of the USEF. Entries will show and be judged under applicable class specifications for junior horses as set forth in the Arabian division of the USEF rulebook. Region III Futurity Committee may modify horse's age requirement. Reining classes to be video taped. All Reining classes will do pattern #5.

2. Tack and Appointment

Western horses to show in bosal or snaffle bit. A snaffle is defined as a center jointed single, rounded, unwrapped, smooth mouthpiece of 5/16" to 3/4" diameter metal as measured from the ring to 1" in from the ring with a gradual decrease to the center of the snaffle. Rings may be from 2" to 3" outside diameter, of either the loose type, eggbut, dee, or center mounted without cheeks. Riders may use both hands. Hunter pleasure horses to show in standard snaffle bits defined above. Full or half checks are allowed. Bits may be dropped for inspection at the judge's discretion.

3. Eligibility

Arabian futurity entrants must be registered with the AHA Registry; Half Arabian and Anglo Arabian futurity entrants with the AHA Half Arabian/Anglo Arabian Registry. There is no requirement for owner's state of residence. Western Pleasure and Hunter Pleasure horses to be 3 or 4 years of age. ATR, Reining, Trail and Working Cow horses to be 5 years and under. Nominees must have never been shown in a bridle. Bridle is defined as any bit with a solid mouthpiece or one that has a shank.

4. Nominations and Fees

Nominations must be received on or before the dates listed. Nominations may be transferred upon sale of a nominated horse. The futurity secretary must receive notice of sale within 30 days from date of sale. Total futurity payments, if made on due dates, are $300. Late entry fee penalties are $50 for missing first payment ($350 total), $150 for missing second payment ($450 total). Entries made after the closing of entries for the show, and up to class time will be $500. All stall, drug, & miscellaneous fees are payable to the show. There will be no refunds or substitutions. To avoid late payment charges, all payments must be postmarked by payment date schedule.

5. Purses and Rewards

All money received from nominations will be allocated for prize money except a $25 class promotion fee. Payments credited toward specific class entered. Prize money divided: 5 or more entries: champion 45%, reserve 22%, remainder top 5 11% each. 4 entries: champion 50%, reserve 25% remaining entries 12.5%. 3 entries: champion 55%, reserve 30%, remainder 15%. Awards made to an unrated top five followed by champion and reserve. A full top five placing will be given even if eight or less compete.

6. Division of Classes

14 or fewer entries: one go around, finals judged at the same time. 15-24 entries: first round to be semifinal, number of horses selected to advance to finals will be determined by the number of entries in class. 25 or more entries: class divided into two sections: the number of entries in the class will determine number of horses selected from each section to advance to finals. Reining futurity: 14 or fewer entries judged as above. 15 or more entries: top five selected from first round: top five to compete for champion & reserve (held on a later day).

7. Declaration of Classes

It is recommended but not necessary to declare a class upon first or second payment. You must declare a class by close of entries. After close of entries you are not allowed to switch classes.
